

Ancestry Central

Family Tree and Ancestry Research Services

Newsletter, Issue 2 2011

This Newsletter is designed to take you through to our interactive pages, to do so, please select the relevant link, logo or image

Latest News

Unidentified Images of People and Places

Do you recognize any of the people, places or things highlighted in this series of images ?

If so please contact us and share what you know?

1920's Outing

We think this is 1922; Raymond Billington is 4th from the left, in the background standing.

Where is it?

Who are his friends?

Continued

The Railway Children of Goole.

The Caukell and Taylor family that grew up in Parliament Street and Fourth Avenue, Goole, East Yorkshire were as close as any family living in the terraced streets of a northern town in Victorian Britain, the railway helped change their lives considerably. Read More

US Airbase RAF Goxhill, Lincolnshire 1942-1945 (USAAF Station 345)

Goxhill was not the most luxurious of Airbases, nor the most suitable as a command base, so much so, despite being used by the Royal Flying Corp in the First World War..... More

Search UK, USA and Irish Newspaper Articles from 1785

I have recently subscribed to a number of services that give me access to Newspaper Archives dating back to 1785, information at my finger tips which could prove valuable to your Family Research. More information

Flickr Photo Stream

View Flickr Photostream.

Blitz com by dot Com a Blast

Saturday 7th May 2011 saw the start of a two day exhibition organised by the East Yorkshire Family History Society to commemorate Kingston Upon Hull's worst night of the 1941 blitz. The exhibition was held at Carnegie Heritage Centre and with the help of volunteer groups such as the Heroes of Hull Web Site. Read Full Story

Picture of the Month

Special Packages

Family Tree Research

Local Services

Testimonials

Rates

Contact